“Rev. 3:2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die:”

Dear Supporting Church / Individuals and Prayer Partners,

Ps. 135:3 Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

We are praising the Lord for His goodness and faithfulness to us each day. Since being back home in Lebanon, Mo. the weather and sickness with both Kim and I have kept us from going out as much as we wanted. From the end of the year to present we have put over 10,000 miles in helping churches and on deputation in one mission's conference and many church services.

We have still been busy in these last two months helping many pastors and churches that are in great need. One deacon called on a Thursday night at ten p.m. to ask help for their pastor and church. The church had just taken a vote of confidence for the pastor the Sunday night before. He gave the pastor my number and we counseled this pastor many times. Thank the Lord that the pastor is still at the church and they are working through this trying time for their church.

In the last two months we have counseled six pastors that were in need of someone to talk to about their ministry. Thank you for enabling us to be available to listen to and be used of God to encourage these pastors. There are many pastors that are ready to resign, but there is a shortage of good young pastors to fill these positions. Please pray for more young men to hear and except the call of God to be a pastor in churches like these.

I would like to make known a need of $1,500 to help us in the maintenance of our vehicle that we have done in the past few months. As we travel we see that everyone is in some type of need and have not really wanted to let our needs be known. Then also when I pastored I couldn't help if we didn't know there was a need. Please pray and we know that God will always provide our needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Prayer requests:

1. That we would see many saved and discipled in the churches we help.
2. That God would use us to reach and help hurting pastors and churches.
3. That we would get our support quickly to help these churches and pastors.

His Servant to His saints
